Job Description:

We are seeking an experienced Senior Research Analyst to join our Global Investment Grade Credit platform. Our goal is to further deepen our research resources and position our team to build upon our long-term track record of performance. The successful candidate will join a large team of Research Analysts, Traders and Portfolio Managers responsible for managing global Investment Grade Corporate assets.

Responsibilities:

- Identify and implement investment ideas across coverage sectors.
- Evaluate and integrate industry trends into actionable investment recommendations.
- Maintain a high quality and consistent work product with respect to financial modeling, analysis of credit / industry trends, written credit reports and credit review presentations to Portfolio Managers.
- Establish and maintain management / industry relationships within covered industries.
- Train and mentor intermediate or junior level Research Analysts on the team when applicable.

Requirements:

- Experience (sell-side and/or buy-side) as a senior analyst with exposure to various industries
- MBA or CFA preferred.
- Proficient written and verbal communication skills sufficient to share ideas and influence portfolio outcomes along with Portfolio Managers and colleagues.
- Candidate must be hard-working and proactive, with the ability to independently evaluate investment ideas within covered industries and take ownership of investment performance.
- Expert level quantitative and qualitative skills sufficient to evaluate company-specific and industry level data, and synthesize this information into actionable investment ideas.
- Relationship skills to work successfully within the Global Investment Grade Credit team, including mentoring colleagues when applicable, and working cooperatively across the Neuberger Berman organization.
- Meet minimum requirements for FCA registration
