How did the Fund perform last year?

The one-year period was marked by abrupt shifts in sentiment and investor preferences for stocks, sectors and themes. The Fund's IT investments and exposure to the AI megatrend generated solid performance. Noteworthy performance also came from some of the Fund's traditional value names. On the negative side, several of the Fund's Health Care stocks struggled in a sector that was markedly out of favor. Stock selection in Communication Services hurt returns due predominantly to a stock specific issue with one company.
