Performance Highlights

During August 2026, the MSCI World Index (Total Return, Net of tax, USD) (the "Index") returned 2.58%. The Neuberger Global Equity Megatrends Fund USD I Accumulating Class ("GEM Fund" or the "Fund") returned 6.49% (Net of Fees) in the same period. Importantly, these returns follow several years of well performing equity markets, with the Index compounding 20.11% annually over the last 3 years, and the Fund returning 20.51% annually in the same time period.

GEM entered the summer and June earnings season with a portfolio of companies that were performing well, growing cashflows nicely, yet trading at very reasonable valuations. We avoided most hyperscalers and AI enablers, many of which corrected significantly in recent months, and had been reducing exposure to AI enablers held in the portfolio primarily on valuation concerns. At the same time, we maintained conviction and had been adding to beaten down software holdings that generally continued to perform well and began to recover somewhat in recent months. We also maintained conviction in GEM's travel companies as consumers continue to prioritize travel spend, even as geopolitical tension escalated once again and persistent inflation could lead to a more fragile consumer.

Fund performance is representative of the Neuberger Global Equity Megatrends Fund USD I Accumulating Class (the "Fund") and has been calculated to account for the deduction of fees. Fund performance does not take account of any commission or costs incurred by investors when subscribing for or redeeming shares. Investors who subscribe in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund should note that returns may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations. The fees and charges paid by the Fund will reduce the return on your investment.

GEM portfolio companies continue to navigate the current environment reasonably well. As of the end of August, top contributors to Fund performance over the past year included Corning (Personalization of Media), ATI (Energy Efficiency) and Charles River Laboratories (Health & Wellbeing). Meanwhile, Shift4 Payments (Evolving Global Consumer), Perrigo (Health & Wellbeing) and Amdocs (Personalization of Media) were among the top detractors to Fund performance over the past year.

Market Backdrop

Global equities posted headline gains this month, with US and most other important equity markets posting encouraging returns. However, underlying volatility and macro crosscurrents persisted. Ongoing geopolitical tensions in the Middle East continue to worry investors. As ever, macro angst is again elevated, reflected in higher rates with the greatest concerns being persistent inflation and debt sustainability. In tech and industry, the debate over an AI bubble intensified as hyperscalers increasingly turn to capital markets to finance record infrastructure investments.

While many AI enablers continue to deliver strong revenue and profit growth, the stock of many of these companies were pressured as investors increasingly focus on payback timelines and capital intensity. Record investing continues to weigh on near-term cash flows, and even global tech leaders like Alphabet and Alibaba are now actively raising new debt and equity capital to finance these necessary investments.

In this context, GEM portfolio companies continue to perform well. The June-quarter earnings season was generally positive, with mostly encouraging outlooks for the rest of the year and beyond. Supported by reasonable valuations, we view this period of sentiment-driven volatility and AI fixation as an opportunity to buy high-quality assets at attractive prices, reinforcing our commitment to our disciplined investment process.

Portfolio Update

During August, we increased our exposure to Onsemi (Energy Efficiency), Vistra (Energy Efficiency) and Element Fleet Management (Energy Efficiency). We funded these investments primarily by trimming exposure to Charles River Lab (Health & Wellbeing), Zeta Global (Smart Systems) and Wuxi Biologics (Health & Wellbeing).

The GEM portfolio currently trades at 15x free cash flow, a significant discount to global equity indices (MSCI World index at 30x) and to AI enablers. This certainly reflects a high degree of forward uncertainty for a portfolio that is actually expected to grow free cash flow at 18% annually over the next three years (charts below).

GEM = Neuberger Global Equity Megatrends Fund. MSCI World = MSCI World Index (Total Return, Net of Tax, USD) S&P 500 = S&P 500 Index (Total Return, Net of Tax, USD).

MSCI ex-10 = MSCI World Index excluding the top 10 constituents. S&P ex-10 = S&P 500 Index excluding the top 10 constituents.

This setup provides an encouraging foundation for patient investors in an investment environment where discipline and selectivity should be rewarded.

Conclusion

While the near term continues to feel uncertain, we remain constructive given our conviction in the outlook and value of the businesses we own. Over the years, through a myriad of market cycles and economic environments, GEM's unique approach has consistently delivered complementary alpha with downside protection. Historically, our dogmatic approach and process discipline has served patient investors well.

As always, we appreciate your ongoing trust and commitment and work to continue to earn it. If we can be helpful in any way don't hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely,

Daniel P. Paduano

Past performance is not indicative of future results. The value of investments may go down as well as up and investors may not get back any of the amount invested. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred by investors when subscribing for or redeeming shares. It should not be assumed that any investments in securities, companies, sectors or markets identified and described were or will be profitable. Investors may not get back the full amount invested. For further details of the investment risks, please refer to the current prospectus. Please note that any dividends/interest which the Fund may receive may be subject to withholding tax. The benchmark does not take into account the effects of tax and the deduction is therefore not reflected in the benchmark return illustrated herein. The investment objective and performance benchmark is a target only and not a guarantee of the Fund performance. The index is unmanaged and cannot be invested in directly. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and capital gains and unlike fund returns do not reflect fees or expenses. Adverse movements in currency exchange rates can result in a decrease in return and a loss of capital. Investments of each portfolio may be fully hedged into its base currency potentially reducing currency risks but may expose the portfolio to other risks such as a default of a counterparty.

Monthly and weekly Distributing Classes will distribute out of income and may also pay out of capital which will be eroded; investors in these classes should be aware that the payment out of capital may have different tax implications from distributions of income and should seek tax advice. In respect of the C, C1, C2, E and B share classes a contingent deferred sales charge may be payable to the Investment Manager in line with the provisions of the Fund's prospectus.
