Neuberger Berman Corporate Hybrid Bond Fund

Achieve an attractive level of total return (income plus capital appreciation). The Portfolio will invest primarily in investment grade and sub-investment grade corporate hybrid bonds.

Reasons to Consider the Fund

- Corporate hybrid bonds – Securities issued by non-financial companies which have features of both bonds and equities. They are long-dated, callable, subordinated securities with flexible coupons. Subordinate to senior debt, but senior to equity, they pay coupons, like a bond, but the issuer can stop paying those coupons without defaulting.
- Attractive yields relative to wider investment grade universe – Yields are typically higher than those on senior bonds of the same issuers and are issued by generally well-known, investment grade entities: average yield of ~5.0-7.0%.(USD Hedged)¹
- Liquidity – Bonds are included in the major fixed income indices and interest in the sector is building. Market is rapidly growing (now €290bn+¹).
- High-quality asset class – Predominantly IG-rated, Euro-denominated bonds issued by globally-recognised large, listed, non-financial, high-quality companies.

Key Fund Features

- Quality portfolio – The portfolio is built around defensive, high quality, high coupon credits with barriers to entry and stakeholder support which we believe are best positioned for the current market environment. The Investment Philosophy remains that of a long-term, value-based investing approach – the focus being to identify mispriced securities bottom-up fundamental research and relative analysis. Credits in the portfolio have an average rating of BBB- (the issuers themselves have an average rating of A-/BBB+), reducing the likelihood of defaults and helping to mitigate some of the risks associated with the subordination of hybrid debt.
- Deep and fundamental research – A thorough credit assessment of each issue is carried out, as well as in-depth analysis of the issue's features, an essential step toward correctly determining fair value. The team gains unique insights from proprietary fundamental research conducted within the framework of a disciplined investment process.
- Experienced and stable team – The two lead portfolio managers have an average of over 26 years' experience with a strong track record in Euro credit investing and are supported by the firm's globally-integrated fixed income platform of over 200 investment professionals. The team has participated in over 60% of all corporate hybrid deals within the primary market since January 2014.

A disciplined and repeatable investment process with a focus on recognised global brands

The team combines their relative value-focused framework with intensive fundamental analysis to identify attractive, high-conviction investment opportunities from globally-recognised, stable corporate issuers:

- 1. Credit: Build view on the issuer and its future credit profile
- 2. Hybrid Structure: Analyse hybrid structure and its implied potential valuation downside
- 3. Relative Valuation: Assess the relative value positioning of the hybrid instrument

Past performance does not predict future returns.

Key Risks

Concentration Risk: The fund's investments may be concentrated in a small number of investments and its performance may therefore be more variable than the performance of a more diversified fund.

Counterparty Risk: The risk that a counterparty will not fulfil its payment obligation for a trade, contract or other transaction, on the due date.

Credit Risk: The risk that bond issuers may fail to meet their interest repayments, or repay debt, resulting in temporary or permanent losses to the fund.

Currency Risk: Investors who subscribe in a currency other than the base currency of the fund are exposed to currency risk. Fluctuations in exchange rates may affect the return on investment. Where past performance is shown it is based on the share class to which this factsheet relates. If the currency of this share class is different from your local currency, then you should be aware that due to exchange rate fluctuations the performance shown may increase or decrease if converted into your local currency.

Derivatives Risk: The Fund is permitted to use certain types of financial derivative instruments (including certain complex instruments). This may increase the Fund's leverage significantly which may cause large variations in the value of your share. (Investors should note that the Fund may achieve its investment objective by investing principally in Financial Derivative Instruments (FDI)). Certain investment risks apply in relation to the use of FDI. The use of leverage can amplify both gains and losses, which may result in a significant or a total loss of the fund's value in adverse market conditions.

Hybrid Securities Risk: Hybrid securities are highly structured instruments that combine both equity and fixed income features. They generally carry a higher levels of credit risk as compared to less structured bonds. These include greater risk of coupon deferral, extension of the maturity date by the issuer as well as reinvestment risk due to early redemption. Investors should refer to the risk sections of the prospectus and supplements for further details.

Interest Rate Risk: The risk of interest rate movements affecting the value of fixed-rate bonds.

Liquidity Risk: The risk that the fund may be unable to sell an investment readily at its fair market value. In extreme market conditions this can affect the fund's ability to meet redemption requests upon demand.

Market Risk: The risk of a change in the value of a position as a result of underlying market factors, including among other things, the overall performance of companies and the market perception of the global economy.

Operational Risk: The risk of direct or indirect loss resulting from inadequate or failed processes, people and systems including those relating to the safekeeping of assets or from external events.

For full information on these and other risks, please refer to the fund prospectus and offering documents, including the KID or KIID, as applicable.

This Fund meets the requirements of Article 8 of the SFDR. Further information is available in the Fund's offering documents and at www.nb.com

DISCLAIMER

No recommendation or advice is being given as to whether any investment or strategy is suitable for a particular investor. Each recipient of this document should make such investigations as it deems necessary to arrive at an independent evaluation of any investment, and should consult its own legal counsel and financial, actuarial, accounting, regulatory and tax advisers to evaluate any such investment.

It should not be assumed that any investments in securities, companies, sectors or markets identified and described were or will be profitable. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.

Any views or opinions expressed may not reflect those of the firm as a whole. All information is current as of the date of this material and is subject to change without notice.

The fund described in this document may only be offered for sale or sold in jurisdictions in which or to persons to which such an offer or sale is permitted. The fund can only be promoted if such promotion is made in compliance with the applicable jurisdictional rules and regulations. This document and the information contained therein may not be distributed in the US. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

An investment in the fund involves risks, with the potential for above average risk, and is only suitable for people who are in a position to take such risks. For more information please read the prospectus which can be found on our website at: www.nb.com/europe/literature.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. The value of investments may go down as well as up and investors may not get back any of the amount invested. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred by investors when subscribing for or redeeming shares.

The value of investments designated in another currency may rise and fall due to exchange rate fluctuations in respect of the relevant currencies. Adverse movements in currency exchange rates can result in a decrease in return and a loss of capital. Tax treatment depends on the individual circumstances of each investor and may be subject to change, investors are therefore recommended to seek independent tax advice.

Investment in the fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investor's portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors. Diversification and asset class allocation do not guarantee profit or protect against loss.
