

Fabio Canè is a Managing Director of Neuberger Berman and Senior Partner of Renaissance Partners. He is a member of the Renaissance Investment Committee. Previously, he was the Head of Private Equity at Intesa Sanpaolo's CIB Division. He was in charge of Direct Private Equity and Private Equity Funds investments. Mr. Canè started his career at Intesa Sanpaolo in 2005 where he served a number of roles, including Head of Investment Banking, where he was responsible for M&A, ECM, DCM and structured finance with assets of more than €10bn, and Head of Restructuring & Special Situations with the responsibility of financial restructuring reporting to the CIB Division's CEO. From 2000 to 2004, Mr. Canè was co-founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Yoox, a successful internet apparel retailer, currently listed on the Milan Stock Exchange (approx. €900mm market cap). From 1990 to 2000, he worked for Bain & Co. in Boston and Milan as a Partner. Mr. Canè graduated cum laude in Business Administration from LUISS University in 1984 and received an MBA from the Stern School of Business at New York University in 1990. Mr. Canè is a Certified Public Accountant, is a Member of the NYU Stern Dean's Executive Board and serves as a Board member of Alitalia, Ilpea Industries, Pianoforte (Yamamay/Carpisa) and Pavan.