

Marco Cerrina Feroni is a Managing Director of Neuberger Berman and Senior Partner of Renaissance Partners. He is a member of the Renaissance Investment Committee. Previously, he was the Head of Merchant Banking at Intesa Sanpaolo's CIB Division since 2000. He was in charge of a €2.6bn investment portfolio and responsible for the Merchant Banking equity investments including private equity, strategic, debt to equity swaps and private equity funds. Before Mr. Cerrina Feroni worked in the Investment Banking Department at Banca Commerciale Italiana (then merged into Intesa Sanpaolo) in the Restructuring and M&A department and as Head of Equity Capital Markets and Head of Global Equities. Mr. Cerrina Feroni has been CEO of IMI Investimenti and Chairman of Private Equity Internationals (the companies of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group dedicated to Private Equity). He is a Board Member of Sigma Tau Finanziaria and Rina and has participated in several boards of directors – e.g. Prada, Pirelli Tyre, Telecom Italia Mobile, Genextra, NH Italia, etc. Mr. Cerrina Feroni received his degree in Business Administration from Bocconi University, where he graduated cum laude and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Mr. Cerrina Feroni is a current board member of AIAF, and has been a member of several finance associations including the Finance Commission of ABI – Italian Banking Association.