Thought Leadership

Asset Allocation Committee Outlook

While the first weeks of the new U.S. Administration have been more disruptive than the Asset Allocation Committee anticipated, particularly in the area of tariffs. We believe that trade negotiations are possible and a return to more predictable policymaking can revive animal spirits, but the risks have undeniably risen. The disruptions have already prompted strengthbuilding and pro-growth policy action in Europe, leading us to upgrade our view on this market while maintaining a balanced view on overall asset allocation.
