Thought Leadership

Asset Allocation Committee Outlook

While the first weeks of the new U.S. Administration have been more disruptive than the Asset Allocation Committee anticipated, particularly in the area of tariffs. We believe that trade negotiations are possible and a return to more predictable policymaking can revive animal spirits, but the risks have undeniably risen. The disruptions have already prompted strength-building and pro-growth policy action in Europe, leading us to upgrade our view on this market while maintaining a balanced view on overall asset allocation.

¹ Includes the firm's current and former employees, directors and, in certain instances, their permitted transferees.

² Data reported as of year-end 2024.

³ For illustrative and discussion purposes only. PRI grades are based on information reported directly by PRI signatories, of which investment managers totaled 2,651 for 2024, 3,123 for 2023, 2,791 for 2021, 1,545 for 2020 and 1,247 for 2019. All PRI signatories are eligible to participate and must complete a questionnaire to be included. The underlying information submitted by signatories is not audited by the PRI or any other party acting on its behalf. Signatories report on their responsible investment activities by responding to asset-specific modules in the Reporting Framework. Each module houses a variety of indicators that address specific topics of responsible investment. Signatories' answers are then assessed and results are compiled into an Assessment Report. Neuberger Berman pays a fee to be a member of PRI and the grades are only available to PRI members. Ratings referenced do not reflect the experiences of any Neuberger Berman client and readers should not view such information as representative of any particular client's experience or assume that they will have a similar investment experience as any previous or existing client. Awards and ratings are not indicative of the past or future performance of any Neuberger Berman product or service. Moreover, the underlying information has not been audited by the PRI or any other party acting on its behalf. While every effort has been made to produce a fair representation of performance, no representations or warranties are made as to the accuracy of the information presented, and no responsibility or liability can be accepted for damage caused by use of or reliance on the information contained within this report. Information about PRI grades is sourced entirely from PRI and Neuberger Berman makes no representations, warranties or opinions based on that information.
